“Michael Keaton is fascinating as Kroc, a bad guy who embodies the American Dream - a man who isn't necessarily the best or most talented but who's willing to step on anyone to get ahead.” Katie Walsh, Tribune News Service

This movie is rated PG-13
