

In the tense days following the attack on Pearl Harbor, a train left Washington, D.C. under the cover of night carrying the most precious cargo ever transported in American history. The parcels looked nondescript, but hidden inside was America's soul.

AMERICAN TREASURES
with author
STEPHEN PULEO

SUNDAY, APRIL 30

2:00 p.m.

Leominster Public Library

Books will be available following the presentation for purchase and signing. Program sponsored by Wright-Roy Funeral Home and the North End Diner, corporate members of the Friends of the Leominster Library.

