

Leominster Public Library Code of Conduct Policy

Rationale:

This policy is to inform patrons of the rules and regulations for patron behavior in the Library and on Library grounds.

Leominster Public Library Code of Conduct Policy Statement:

The Leominster Public Library strives to provide a comfortable, enjoyable, and safe environment for reading, studying, working, socializing, and enjoying Library-sponsored programs. The Library is responsible for establishing rules of conduct to protect the rights and safety of Library patrons, volunteers, and staff, and for preserving and protecting the Library's materials, equipment, facilities, and grounds. The Library's Board of Trustees has established a Code of Conduct Policy to ensure that all patrons enjoy their Library experience. The Board of Trustees has the authority under state law to establish reasonable rules regarding the Library and to exclude any person who willfully and persistently violates those rules.

Code of Conduct Policy:

Any behavior that interferes with acceptable Library activities is prohibited. Individuals or groups who fail to observe the policy may be asked to leave the Library and its grounds. The Library staff reserves the right to address behavioral issues in a fair and reasonable manner. Library staff will intervene to stop prohibited activities and behaviors, and seek police assistance if a conduct violation warrants such action.

Behaviors Prohibited in the Library and on its Grounds:

- Violation of any local, state, or federal laws.
- Panhandling, soliciting, or loitering.
- Carrying firearms or other materials that are a threat to public safety.
- Threatening behavior, including, but not limited to, violence, threats of violence, and possession of weapons.

- The abuse, deliberate destruction, improper use, or theft of Library furniture, equipment, materials, or the personal property of patrons or staff members.
- Deliberate disruption of Library services through harassment or inappropriate conduct that endangers public safety or health, intrudes upon other patron's or staff's Library experience, or disrupts staff duties. Inappropriate conduct includes abusive or obscene language, shouting, pushing, fighting, running, stalking, engaging in sexual behaviors, sexual harassment toward patrons or staff, or photographing patrons or staff without permission.

- Wearing clothing inappropriate for a public environment. Shoes and shirts must be worn at all times.
